

Ben-Gurion University Invites Applications For One-Year Mba International Program

JNS: Ben-Gurion University of the Negev (BGU), Israel is now inviting applications for its one-year MBA International Program for the upcoming academic year.

The MBA International Program is offered by BGU's Guilford Glazer Faculty of Business and Management, Israel's first and only Business school to be granted EQUIS accreditation (most comprehensive accreditation system for business and management schools).

The one-year English-language MBA program provides working professionals and international students alike the opportunity to earn an MBA, explore the Start-Up Nation, and expand their professional horizons.

The program comprises of core business modules and advanced courses, intensive workshops, an integrative internship experience with local start-ups, real world applications, simulations, and professional development field trips.

It aims at highlighting innovation, entrepreneurship, and social enterprise on the international level, as well as on the local front, tapping into the entrepreneurial spirit and momentum driving the incredible growth in the Negev region and throughout Israel.